Even The Cartoons Get It Right Sometimes

"Who among us, growing up, didn't look for the comic strip section in the newspapers? I confess to looking for it as a child – especially the Sunday paper. How else could I keep up with a host of characters like Beetle Bailey, Popeye, The Phantom, Dagwood, etc.

Now and again, you might learn something useful, even in the comics section, that should be practiced in life. Such was the case in an episode of Dennis the Menace.

Dennis and his friend Joey are leaving Mrs. Wilson's house with their hands full of cookies. Now Dennis was not always considerate to the Wilsons who are his next-door neighbors (especially Mr. Wilson). But Joey says, "I wonder what we did to deserve this?" Dennis answered, "Look, Joey, Mrs. Wilson gives us cookies, not because we're nice, but because she's nice."

Why does Jesus want His followers to be 'nice' to other people – even those who are not nice? There are many reasons, but here are at least a few to spur us on in Christian maturity.

- ▶ To learn humility by serving others (Lk. 14:11-14).
- ▶ To share Jesus's compassion for others (Mt. 15:32).
- ▶ To shine a little light in spiritual darkness (Mt. 5:16).
- ▶ To bring glory to our Heavenly Father (1 Pet. 2:12).
- ▶ To lay up treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:20).
- ▶ To be peacemakers (Matthew 5:9).
