KEN'S PEN

Seek and Do: Worship

“I was glad when they said to me, ‘Let us go into the house of the Lord’” (Psalm 122:1).

Like David, our hearts should fully anticipate going to God's house. For New Testament believers, God's house is the local church (1 Tim. 3:15), and the Lord has commanded us to assemble regularly there with other believers (Heb.10:25). We ought to rejoice when the appointed time comes to assemble with the church.

Jewish feasts—special times when the Israelites gathered in Jerusalem to worship—were joyous occasions for God's people. They were the highlights of the year. The people's hearts were happy as they made the strenuous journey to Jerusalem, and they sang along the way.

Sadly, many professing believers today do not worship in God's house regularly; and for many of those who do, going to church is a dreaded duty rather than a delight.

Just as sad are those who allow their lives and their children's to become so crowded with activities that there is no time for fellowship with God's saints. Others are so exhausted by work and family responsibilities that they find it difficult to “find the time.”

We need to make corporate worship a joyful priority in our lives. However, joyful worship is possible only if we love the Lord and seek to be obedient to our Lord. Scripture is clear: we must not neglect to gather with God's people for worship and for nourishment from God's Word (Heb.10:25). In other words, corporate worship is not optional. Jesus taught this principle when He said that “the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath” (Mark.2:27). As we grow ever closer to the return of Christ, we will need the encouragement and strength we receive from gathering with other believers more and more (Heb.10:24–25).

If you would like to drive the van and help pick up those who can not drive please see Michael Hall!!

Seek and Do: Worship

Psalm 122:1

Introduction:

1. "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord.'"
2. How do we feel when Sunday comes, and we approach the church building where we worship? This psalm reminds us that worship is to be a joyful occasion, rich in meaning for the believer.
3. Worship deepens our connection to God because of...

Discussion:

I. The Instruction We Receive.

II. The Exercises in Which We Engage.

III. The People with Which We Associate.

IV. The Interests We Promote.

Conclusion:

1. Can you passionately say, "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord'"?
2. Our connection to God will deepen when we recognize the gift that worship truly is.
