KEN'S PEN

Jesus Knows and Cares

Fear, confusion, anger, and frustration are but a few of the words used to describe the flow of emotions associated with the seemingly endless stream of bad news that is reported every day. Though we may be far removed from the actual scenes, the events themselves strike a chord of intense repulsion as we watch the recorded chaos from the comfort and security of our own homes. And yet, as horrible as much of the daily tragedies may seem, a less noticeable, but no less tragic disaster occurs around us all the time: it is the daily struggle of mankind against physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual destitution.

In becoming flesh (John 1:14), Jesus was able to identify with all the human experiences that life brings. He endured the physical strains of hunger and thirst. He coped with the emotional pressures of loneliness, anger, and hurt. He suffered betrayal, accusation, denial, and desertion. He knew of the heart-break that comes with separation from those you love, especially as experienced in the pain that accompanies the death of a loved one. But these things were not a detriment to Him. No, rather, "He learned obedience by the things which He suffered. And having been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him" (Heb. 5:8f).

In having gone to the cross, Jesus is able to identify with the reality of death and dying, of relating to both its fears and demonstration of faith. The cross, in this regard, accomplished more than our salvation from sin; it also provided proof that we have a Savior who can identify with our every problem, pain, and possibility. No matter where we go, He has been there.

When you wonder if God cares that you suffer, remember Jesus' suffering on the cross. When life presents you with an unexpected turn, remember that Jesus knows the way. When you suffer the loss of family and friends, remember that Jesus was alone in like-sorrow. Not only is He able to identify with our infirmities, He is also able to strengthen us to endure them: "For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." (Heb. 4:15f).

The Wonder of God's Son
1 Timothy 3:16

Introduction:

1. Wonder: A feeling of surprise, mingled with admiration, caused by something beautiful, unexpected, unfamiliar, or inexplicable (cf. Jud. 13:18; Isa. 9:6). God describes the wonder of His son here in 1 Timothy 3:16. He refers to this as the "mystery of godliness."
2. What is this "mystery of godliness"?
3. Let us realize the place of this mystery in our lives by remembering the significance of Jesus' manifestation, justification, and exaltation.

Discussion:

I. Jesus' Manifestation.

II. Jesus' Justification.

III. Jesus' Exaltation.

Conclusion:

1. Jesus is Wonderful!
2. Consider the Deity of Christ from Romans 8:35-39.
